The women will read Ansley's locals this week, over and over, and the store will be filled with eager buyers.

If our farmers would make such an exhibit every Fair as they can make of fruits, grain, vegetables, poultry, cattle, sheep, horses and hogs, it would enhance the value of Logan county farms. There is nothing that pays as well as making a good display of one's wares. Our merchants and grocers all understand this.

Dr. W. L. Klein, of Dayton, who accompanied the train that was sent South for the Ohio sick soldiers, says:

The train consisted of 21 cars, some of which were arranged with cots, after the seats had all been removed. The rest of the train was made up of Pullman sleepers for the more serious cases, and everything about the train was perfect, even to the arrangements for baths for the sick soldiers. The train brought up 243 patients, and they were attended by 60 nurses.

W. R. C. Committees.

The soliciting committee will please report at Mrs. Simon Daily's this evening, and the committees for work, at the K. of P. Hall, before eight o'clock Friday morning. Work will be looked for all members who come.

Small Bat Sufficient.

At the bat on the Zanesville pike, yesterday afternoon, before the Commission, the ants rallied and came very near defeating the pike. The count revealed a majority of 11 for the pike.

Sam, West Coming Home.

Mr. S. H. West, Logan county's prosecuting attorney, who enlisted with Company F, and left his position, has been honorably discharged and will be home this evening. Mr. West has been clerk at Division Headquarters, and has been a busy man. He will be welcomed home and be more popular than ever.

Ansley and Johnson Reunion.

The Ansley and Johnson families held a reunion near Harper last Thursday on the old Ansley farm. There were four hundred persons in attendance, and six persons over 80 years of age. Mrs. Ella R. Ansley, the secretary, has been appointed historian for next year. The program for the day was as follows: Prayer—Rev. Mr. Bigley; Address of Welcome—H. R. Johnson; Recitation—Miss Jessie Dickinson; History of the Ansley family, prepared by Mrs. J. S. Ansley, and read by Mrs. J. S. Ansley; A good talk by Rev. J. S. Ansley; Address by Rev. Henry Baldwin of Hardin Co. (Iowa); and 22 years, sang a hymn; Miss Janet Dickinson gracefully responded to repeated accolades. Dorothea.

Col. Turner's Tribute to His Regiment.

Every Col. thinks his regiment the best, but we publish Colonel Turner's tribute to the First Illinois, as due to Fred Campbell, who had the honor to serve with that regiment in Cuba. The Colonel's remarks were made after his regiment returned to Chicago: "I think I am not too proud when I say that my regiment is the finest in the volunteer service. It has done as hard work and been in as much danger as any other volunteer regiment. At one time 300 of our boys were on special duty of various kinds. Did I say boys? It was only a term of endearment. They are men, great, noble men, every single one of them. They did their work well and without a single kick, without a suggestion of a whimper. They were regarded by every one of the 5th corps as the very best regiment in Cuba. "Every other regiment got away from Cuba from ten to three weeks before the last which remained for the deadliest season in that section without a murmur. I watched it all my move in all circumstances. You bet I did. The boys were just as debonair when they went into the trenches and heard the bullets fly as they ever were when marching down Michigan avenue in full dress uniform, and when they faced the deadliest danger of fever with equal equanimity I said to myself: "Surely they are the best soldiers in all the world. "My only sorrow in it all is that I had to leave some of the fellows behind dead. Every man in the regiment was impressed with the feeling that it was his first duty to care for the sick, and they helped them at all times voluntarily before attending to their own wants. "I understand we are to have a furlough of five days before being mustered out, but have received no official word. "The men of the First Illinois stood the service as well as those of any other regiment. Most of the regulars I saw were in worse shape than my boys, but there was a reason for that. They dug the trenches over the turning over of the earth down there was nearly certain to give malaria. All but ten of the men in my regiment had the fever in some form. The officers fared about the same as the men. We fed on government rations. "Mr. Joseph Chambers, in a recent letter from San Diego, California, says, "My health is excellent, as when I left Ohio. We came here for my wife's health, and she has been much better here than in Ohio. It would be a great social and spiritual treat for us to return to Bellefontaine, on account of our long residence there, and our many endearing relations. But it probably will never be."

The Second Regiment Boys want to come home, no matter what anybody says. Over 800 had signed the petition Saturday, asking to be mustered out. Three came home on a furlough Saturday, asking to be mustered out. Three came home Saturday night, two to Kenton, one of whom had just lost his wife, and who would be left with a six weeks old babe. Mr. Martin, of DeGraff returned crippled up with rheumatism. Joe Mitchell, of Belle Centre, who has been ill, got home Friday.

The Wharton Orphanage for the care of destitute children, (non-sectarian), the Willard Home, Ocean Grove, N. J., the Whosever Farm, Luray, Va., the Wharton Industrial School, for colored children, Charlotte, N. C., depending upon voluntary contributions, for support. You can help this by sending a contribution, large or small, by undertaking the care of one of the children for one year at $50.00, by building a cottage at a thousand dollars, or contributing to the endowment fund. Write for further information. Address, Rev. B. M. Wharton, D. D., 304 North Howard st., Baltimore, Md.

Word From Miss Allen.

We are permitted to copy the following beautiful extract from a letter received by Mr. Alfred Butler, from J. pan, concerning Miss Allen, under date of August 18:

Miss Allen wishes me to send you a word direct, to prove to you, that you, with others have not been forgotten in this dark hour, and to thank you for the beautiful button which came some time ago, but which she has not yet had time to acknowledge. She is very comfortable at this writing, the doctor is sure of her complete recovery, and her scars will not be so bad as we at first feared. The lower part of the right ear has been removed, but it is now believed that this is the only loss she will sustain.

Both the Doctor and Bishop Cranston, who is still with us, say they never saw such courage and faith as Miss Allen possesses. When the Bishop was admitted to her room, and on leaving said something about her burden, the replied: "I haven't any burden, Bishop."

"Do the people of Bellefontaine know what an illustrious citizen they have sent forth to these far Eastern lands. I want to tell you, Mr. Butler, that the blue-eyed girl who left you nearly two years ago, has few peers among the young women of today. I know a great many, and it seems to me that I have scarce found her equal in either mental strength or spiritual power. I have said a number of times that I did not believe there was a man even upon this field who is capable of doing the work for the Master that she is destined to do. A wonderful combination—marvelous."

"I pray that if the Bellefontaine friends have not already done so, then they will hasten, ere it may be too late to express their appreciation of all her self-sacrifice, and of the honor she has brought to her home town. If the news of her death had reached you, many beautiful things would have been on the lips of all. Will you not say them now? She needs them in life, we all need the kind words to help us over the rough places."

Was Certified.

At the examination of teachers, Saturday, September 3rd, Mr. R. L. Yeager was granted a two year's certificate. Mr. Yeager's percentage was good. His name was unintentionally omitted from the list published.

It's Only Gossip.

It has been given out on Wall street that the D. & L. receivership is only the result of a quarrel between the contractor and a sub-contractor. The company, it is claimed, has nothing to do with it, and the matter will soon be settled. The disagreement, however, was of such a nature that a receivership was necessary.—Lima Gazette, Saturday.

A Time of Dearth.

Never since we have been in business have we known our subscribers so backward about paying their subscriptions. The result is not pleasant, and we would consider it a favor if our delinquents would turn the tide and come in and pay up arrears, soon. It will be a great accommodation.

Reduced Rates to the Reunion.

The Central Passenger Association has granted a round trip rate of one and one third fare from all points within a radius of 100 miles of Bellefontaine, to members of the 132nd and 134th Ohio National Guard Regiments, who wish to attend their reunion at Bellefontaine on the 18th inst. Good for return until the 19th.

Clerk in Quartermaster's Office.

T. M. Sullivan, who has for some time past been connected with the State Department as attendant upon the First Assistant Secretary of State, has been appointed a clerk in the office of the Quartermaster General, after passing a civil service examination. He was one of the most experienced proof readers in the Government Printing Office for a long time, and has also served in the Bureau of Statistics.—Washington Post.

Tim's many friends in Bellefontaine, will be glad to learn of his success, for he is not only a capital good fellow, but he will fill faithfully, conscientiously and efficiently any position he may be given.

An Answer.

The G. A. R. Encampment in 1888 was held in Columbus. A correspondent wants to know where the Encampment of 1880 was held. Can some one give us the information.—REPUBLICAN, Sept. 9.

DE GRAFF, O., Sept. 9, 1898. "On June 8, 1880, the delegates to the Fourteenth Annual Session, assembled at the Soldiers Home in Dayton. O. The commander in chief was the Rev. William Earnshaw, who was chaplain of the Home, and in his address said: Comrades, the place at which you meet is in many ways a strong reminder of the days when you were loyal soldiers of the Republic. Here are the tents and the camping ground. Here are the stacked arms and accoutrements. Above all this you see about you over four thousand disabled heroes, who stand shoulder to shoulder with you in the days of glory, and he said comrades, that from them you are receiving a most hearty greeting. Some of them may not have a hand left to grasp yours in other days, or legs to come to you, but their hearts are still the same, and they join you in singing. We drink from the same canteen, your presence here will long be remembered by many who are weary and worn, but they are now resting from the fight."

This anarchist who assassinated M. Carnot, the President of the French Republic, the anarchist who murdered Senator Canovas, the Spanish Prime Minister, and the fiend who assassinated the Emperor of Austria, Saturday, were all Italians.

NEWS ITEMS.

The victories of Hood's Sarsaparilla over all forms of disease conclusively prove that it is an unequalled blood purifier. It conquers the demon, Scrofula. Believes the itching and burning of salt rheum, cures running sores, ulcers, boils, pimples, and every other form of humor or disease originating in impure blood. The cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla are cures—absolute, permanent, perfect cures. They are based upon its great power to purify and enrich the blood.

The prince of Belgium, who will soon ascend the throne, it is said has been casting enquiring glances at Miss Julia Grant, daughter of Col. B. Grant.

The victory rests with America's Greatest Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, when it enters the battle against impure blood.

Saga is finding it difficult to persuade Spaniards to act as peace commissioners. A tired stomach is very much like a sprained ankle. If you suffer from any of the symptoms of dyspepsia, your stomach is tired. It needs a rest. We must relieve it of all work for a time, or until it is restored to its natural strength. To do this successfully, we must use a food which is already digested outside of the body, and which will aid the digestion of other foods that may be taken with it. Such a product is the Shaker Digestive Cordial.

The Shakers have utilized the digestive principles present in plants for the manufacture of this article, and its success has been truly phenomenal. You can try it for the nominal sum of 10 cents, as sample bottles are sold by all druggists at this price.

LAXOL is the best medicine for children. Doctors recommend it in place of Castor Oil.

SAD ACCIDENT.

Young Man Badly Cut By a Corn Cutter.

Wednesday last, Arthur, son of Mr. Austin Johnston, deceased, met with a very bad accident, while cutting corn, on the home farm in Monroe township. He was riding on a sled corn cutter, and in passing over a lump it turned over, and he fell under it. He was severely cut on one side, on the back, and on one arm by the knives. On the right side there was a big gash cut, letting a piece of flesh fall down from the ribs. Under the right shoulder blade there was a bad gash. And a gash was cut to the bone on the right arm. The young man was taken to the house, and his injuries attended to by Dr. Davis, of Middleburg, and the young man is doing as well as could be expected. Fortunately no bones were broken and no large blood vessel cut.

A consultation was held Sunday afternoon. It blood poisoning does not set in, the young man may recover; but he is in a critical condition.
